PAUL, A. J., AND HOWARD M. FEDER, "Growth, recruitment, and distribution of the littleneck clam, Protothaca staminea, in Galena Bay, Prince William Sound, Alaska," p. 665-677.

1) Page 665, left column, first paragraph. The last sentence should read:

"Feder and Paul (1973) and R. Nickerson (Alaska Department of Fish and Game, pers. comm.) suggested that a small clam fishery is feasible in Prince William Sound since paralytic shellfish poison (P.S.P.) does not seem to be a problem there, and many beaches with sizable populations of P. staminea and the butter clam, Saxidomus giganteus, occur in the area."
