

Supplementary Figure 1. Transverse section of a sagittal otolith from an 8-year-old yellowtail jack (Seriola dorsalis) collected in the Southern California Bight in May 2015. The black arrows indicate recorded annuli. The inset photo shows the whole, unsectioned otolith with a coin ($0.10) for scale. The box outlined in red indicates the region of the transverse section.