

COMMERCIAL FISHERIES REVIEW

A REVIEW OF DEVELOPMENTS AND NEWS OF THE FISHERY INDUSTRIES
PREPARED IN THE DIVISION OF COMMERCIAL FISHERIES

A. W. Anderson, Editor

F. F. Johnson, Associate Editor

C. R. Lucas, Assistant Editor

Applications for COMMERCIAL FISHERIES REVIEW, which is mailed free to members of the fishery industry and allied interests, should be addressed to the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, United States Department of the Interior, Washington, 25, D.C.

The contents of this publication have not been copyrighted and may be reprinted freely; however, reference to the source will be appreciated. The Service assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of material from outside sources.

CONTENTS

Cover: At Celilo Falls, on the Columbia River, salmon ascending toward their spawning grounds are forced to travel in several turbulent passages where the river waters force their way between the rocks. Here Indians of many tribes, exercising treaty rights of long standing, erect platforms and ply their dipnets.

Source: Office of War Information.

	Page
AGAR-WEED, A FISHERY RESOURCE, by V. J. Senn	1
During the war, our agar-weed resources supported a small fishery in California.
THE CONTENT OF CERTAIN AMINO ACIDS IN SEAFOODS, by S. R. Pottinger and W. H. Baldwin	5
* Fishery products are a comparatively good source of amino acids.
NUTRITIVE VALUE OF THE PROTEIN OF SWELLFISH, by D. B. Darling and H. W. Nilson .	10
Experiments indicate that the protein of swellfish is highly digestible.
SECTIONAL REVIEWS (South Atlantic)	12
TECHNOLOGICAL RESEARCH IN SERVICE LABORATORIES	13
FRESH AND FROZEN FISH	16
CANNED AND CURED FISH	21
FISHERY BYPRODUCTS	22
OTHER FISHERY NOTES	23
FOREIGN FISHERY TRADE	31
FEDERAL LEGISLATION, DECISIONS, ORDERS, ETC.	37
Department of Agriculture:
Fats and Oils	37
Salmon Pack Allocation Withdrawn	37
Import Controls	37
Salted Fish	38
Department of Commerce:
Canned Fish	38
Food and Drug Administration:
Oyster Standards	39
Department of the Interior:
Halibut Allocation	41
Halibut Allocation Appeal	41
Office of Price Administration:
Canned Salmon Prices	42
Norwegian Kippered Snacks	44
Price Control Extended	45
Salmon For Canning	46
RECENT FISHERY PUBLICATIONS	47